

ORO, an Appeal for a Better World
by Fernand Wiser

Table of contents

Who is ORO?

Oro the Magician Writes Magical Poems

Oro for a Better World

Did God create monsters?

Oro the Don Quixote Against the Windmills

Oro Against Electric Cars

Not alone in the universe

Oro the nature lover

Oro and the Friendship

Oro Advocates Brotherhood and Solidarity Among Peoples

Oro Sails the Seas for Plastic

Oro for Improving the Air We Breathe

Oro Comes to Aid the Farmers

Oro Fights Against Pesticides

Oro for a Greener World

Oro Disposing of Nuclear Waste for Our Descendants

Oro Hates Nuclear Power, a Looming Threat

Oro Denounces Child Exploitation in Mines

Oro and the Children Stolen by Russia

Oro for Democracy

Oro for the Fall of Dictatorships

Oro Teaches the Children, Leaves Education to Parents

Oro Asks Questions About "Gender"

Oro Opposes Teaching "Gender" in Primary School

Oro Fights Against Poverty

Oro Teaches Magic to Children

Oro and God

Oro Advocates for the Spirit of Family

Oro Teaches Wisdom to the Young and the Old

Oro Admires the Chinese Tradition of Respecting the Elders

Oro Comes to the Aid of Abused Women

Oro Frees the oppressed Children

Oro Visits Israel

Oro For a Lasting Peace

Oro and Art

Oro the Optimist

Conclusion