THE RESPONSE

HUMANITY IN DANGER

DEPOPULATION

I dedicate this book to all those whistleblowers who were murdered, of whom there were many alas, because they were too disturbing for our oligarchy, as well as to "all those useless mouths" today who suffer the same fate, because of vaccination programs, that it is putting in place, and in what risks becoming the greatest genocide in the history of humanity!

If you were planning to get vaccinated too, this book, likely, will save your life...

"Even if my life is in danger because of the dissemination of information like this, yours is even more so because of ignorance of this same information."

FOREWORD

Notice to the entire population!

Especially, never get vaccinated again, against Covid-19. Where it is a criminal project of depopulation, this affair, organized for a very long time, by many countries, under the aegis of their leaders, and with personalities, such as Bill Gates (who finances the WHO) David Rockefeller (Founder of the Bilderberg Group, where Emmanuel Macron was chosen) George Soros, Ted Turner, Jacques Attali, Klaus Schwab (Founder of the World Economic Forum) Angela Merkel, Anthony Fauci, etc., and many industrialists.

Some People in our population are already aware, thanks to Jim Leveilleur, who can be followed on his private channel: karmatv.o. But Jim is far from knowing everything about this conspiracy of which we are victims, where a lot of information is not circulating, you think! All of this was kept secret. Where their plan is almost unstoppable.

Our leaders, in this regard, have had a military biological weapon manufactured by the Institute Pasteur (of which our President here is currently the Administrator) in 2010. Yes, our own Institute! This had already begun in the time of Jacques Chirac, with the Chinese. Where we will know more, after reading this book.

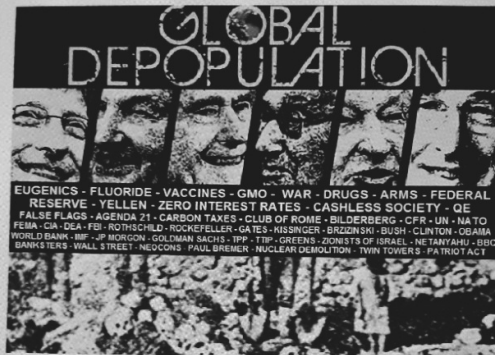

Something Now The very unfortunate thing about this is that most people all over the world have thought and are thinking – which is why their plan has worked so well, to our leaders – that it is not possible that the majority of heads of state on the planet have made a plan among themselves, for the purpose of depopulating the earth of its inhabitants. through vaccines.

Let us then recall an article in the New York Times of November 4, 1969, written by Gladwin Hill, exposing John David Rockefeller's depopulation program, in which he indicated that sterilization chemicals should be added to the food supply, in order to achieve the globalist goals of human depopulation.

The article, "A sterility Drug in Food is Hinted," was accompanied by the statement, "Biologist Stresses Need to Curb Population Growth." (One biologist points to the need to curb population growth.)

In this article, other proponents of depopulation are quoted, such as Dr. Paul Ehrlich of Stanford University, as well as President Richard Nixon's Chief Science Advisor, Dr. Lee Du Bridge, who stated that "population control should be the primary task of every government, as well as Dr. Barry Commoner of Washington University in St. Louis, He added: "Can't we invent a way to reduce our population growth rate to zero? Every human institution – school, university, church, family, government and international agency such as Unesco – should make it its main task. »

1969 – Un article du New York Times expose le programme de dépopulation de John D. Rockefeller Projet Depop : NYT « Une substance stérilisante dans la nourriture à l'étude ».

Un article de fond du New York Times du 4 novembre 1969, rédigé par Gladwin Hill, demandait que des produits chimiques de stérilisation soient ajoutés à l'approvisionnement alimentaire afin d'atteindre les objectifs mondialistes de dépopulation humaine. Cet article, intitulé « A Sterility Drug in Food is Hinted », était accompagné de la mention « Biologist Stresses

Where Most States around the world have therefore taken action, as we have seen, with the aim of reducing the world's population, by the majority of its inhabitants, by means of vaccines.

Before, they did not technically have the means to do so, whereas now, as you can discover, my dear readers, they have it in this book, for people who would be interested.

Everything I WriteIn my books, I have invented absolutely nothing. This is confirmed by the former Vice President of Pfizer, Michael Yeadon, who does not rule out the existence of a large-scale depopulation project through vaccines. He also strongly advised us to refuse digital identity, as well as central bank digital currencies.

His lyrics: "I think they're going to take numerical and tyrannical control of everybody, and then they're going to eliminate most people. It's terrible, where people are really going to have to wake up and rise up against them, with my books to back it up.

Many vaccinated people, as a result, will think about having their blood cleaned by plasmapheresis.

It's useless.

Almost half of the world's population is now infected by vaccination. Just like blood, which is used in hospitals.

The only solution is to follow the advice, I beg of you, which will be found a little later in this book, to get rid of the nanoparticles that one may have in the body (by doing a cure, from time to time, by means of the two natural products indicated in it.) and the advice that will be found in "GENOCIDE", a book in which I have also done a lot of work, on this post-vaccination problem, of people who have been vaccinated, and of those who live with them.

Many of us knew that what we were led to believe about Covid-19 was not at all true.

Indeed, overpopulation, denounced by a certain number of actors, among our governments, was part of their concern, and then, suddenly, they wanted us to believe with Covid-19, that we would care about sparing human lives, by vaccinating the entire world population? No, something was being hidden from us, that's obvious!

The greatest crime for me on earth is to have invented vaccination, in the name of which we can murder whomever we want, with total impunity. This is what the States are doing now!

The sun is our best ally, thanks to which we make vitamin D, necessary for our immune system, to protect us from any disease. This has been perfectly understood by governments, along with vaccine manufacturers, both of whom are involved in this project of depopulation, on a global scale!

What did holistic doctors in Florida find murdered in their research on this subject?

Well, that the enzyme protein Nagalase has been INTENTIONALLY added to a large number of vaccines !

The Nagalase enzyme PREVENTS vitamin D from binding to the Gc protein. This completely strips a human being's body of its natural ability to kill cancer cells.

Nagalase is a protein created by all cancer cells, which are also present in high concentrations in autistic children.

They put it in a number of vaccines, obviously.

This prevents the body from using the vitamin D needed to fight cancer and prevent autism. Nagalase deactivates the immune system.

It is also known to cause type 2 diabetes.

These doctors were killed, because they really had proof, that the vaccines, which they inject into our children, are the cause of their autism and cancer for us, to prevent them from making this information public!

They really want us to die.

Dr. Ted Broer revealed this in the Hagman Report.

Why have our leaders, now, devised a plan, for the purpose of assassinating us, you might ask my dear readers?

Well, for several reasons, which we will see in this book, but the main one is to conserve the oil of course, for them. Where, in about thirty years, at the most, there would be none, as a result of the increase in the world's population.

We have based everything on oil, which we use for roads, plastics and fuel, etc. Now imagine if there were no more? Well, we'd be going back several centuries, to agriculture for example. And for this fraction of people at the top of the world, as well as for their friends, among the rich, the industrialists, the most influential people on the planet and the billionaires, etc., it would be inconceivable. Who has also thought of this equation? "If we can reduce the world's population, as recommended by Ted Turner, for whom the ideal genocide is 95% of it, well, we, as far as we are concerned, would have oil for centuries!"

That's why they fabricated Covid-19 from scratch, in order to vaccinate the entire planet, and limit the number of its inhabitants!

For Dennis Meadows, of the World Economic Forum, we must depopulate the earth of six billion people, in a peaceful way!

All these criminals are aiming for the lives of 95% of humanity, and it was impossible, of course, for them to use any other means to achieve this, i.e. vaccines, and a nanoparticle, using physics. Nuclear weapons, of course, are excluded. That said, they organized things very well, as we will see in this book.

Now they don't really know what to invent to force us to get vaccinated. Imagine that the WHO, recently, announced the need for mass vaccination, "to combat the effects of climate change", including "the threat of the spread of diseases, by mosquitoes, migrating to new regions"! We think we're dreaming, and they're serious! So all means are good to inject human livestock, where it's mind-boggling.

The vaccines put on the market in the context of this case are not intended to protect us from any coronavirus, but marketed for another purpose, which is noted in what we are told about it: Thus, the manufacturer of the new booster vaccine, Pfizer/Biotech, against the variant named Cominaty Omicron XBB.1.5, "highlights an increased risk of myocarditis and pericarditis, especially in young men (including fatal consequences) and indicates that vaccination may not work at all and if it does, does not know for how long"!

Whoever admits outright, it must be said, organized crime; not hiding it in the slightest! But when will this charade end?

After 3 or 4 doses, now;

It is each other's health problems that are of concern: myocarditis for one, stroke for another; breast cancer for one, and death for another! The taboo subject of vaccination is addressed with lip service. For another, the carotid artery was 70% blocked, whereas the same analysis was normal six months earlier! Placed on anticoagulants, while this person was previously in good health, his doctor indicates that the cause of the Covid vaccination cannot be excluded, to his problem. Who's next?

Also German bodybuilder Jo Lindner, known as Joesthetics, died at the age of 30 from a ruptured aneurysm. Injected four times. This bodybuilder had his blood cleansed of weird particles. (From his own mouth!) Before he died, he confided, "You don't get rid of the Pfizer poison easily." Jo Lindner, who has had two plasmapheresis tests (which eliminate deleterious substances circulating in the blood, autoantibodies and immune complexes), has had his blood cleaned twice.

Large volumes of plasma were removed from him.

In exchange, patients receive a transfusion of plasma, from healthy donors; (With blood contaminated, however, by vaccinations, unfortunately!) This process is called plasma exchange.

The bodybuilder said that particles were spotted in his blood, which led him to make the decision to have his blood cleaned, twice.

Still, he died. Where to clean one's blood, as one can notice, does not eliminate the problem. The best thing would be to change your diet and take supplements, as you might find out in this book ?

Now, our leaders knew that they would have no trouble making their citizens believe in this story of a virus, against which it was absolutely necessary to protect oneself, so as not to risk death, as this affected the respiratory tract of humans. This infection, in fact, was enough to frighten anyone, so impressive was it.

Governments have had no trouble making men believe that a mask could protect them from a virus, just like people who could have been infected with Covid-19! Where their plan worked like clockwork.

How could people have imagined that their own President could want to assassinate them? Whereas, for everyone, the state has a duty to take care of their health and their lives.

This story of masks has worked so well that there are still people who wear it today, firmly believing that a mask could be able to protect them from a virus, while the latter has two to three times the passage in the middle of its frame to pass and at the level of the wings of the nose, That's no less than 10,000 viruses, which can enter, where it is above all in this place that we breathe, as there is more air that enters!

The mask is a scam, vaccination is another and the governments have not set up this case, in order to spare human lives, but in a common desire to depopulate the earth, of the majority of its inhabitants!

About their plan? This one is almost unstoppable. Because it was very unlikely that we, whistleblowers, would be able to dismantle it, which required resources that we did not have. The collection of all kinds of information already in our hands, as well as its dissemination, without the help of the media.

That is why our leaders, along with their friends, did not hesitate for a single second to embark on this operation. Where, we have to admit that they almost succeeded!

Speaking of which?

It is terrible to see the immobility of people who do not rebel that they can be murdered.

Everything proves in this Covid-19 case, the organized conspiracy, all over the world, but no one complains about it, who lets it happen. Of which it's so incredible.

There is all the evidence, even though it is gathered in this book, as well as in my other books, of the organized assassination of leaders, against their peoples, by means of vaccines and an electromagnetic weapon, using physics. But it doesn't move anyone. No information is circulating. You can't hear anything.

It's as if, during all this time – while we, whistleblowers, have done everything we could, some of us whistleblowers, at the cost of our lives – we have done nothing, to warn the populations, who are disgusted to take to the road, to slip leaflets into the mailboxes. All this, in the hope of saving human lives, as well as the majority of humanity, which is in grave mortal danger, currently. Where we can only cry out our despair, and cry... So much so that we would have had children, only to see them die by our side, as we have already seen so many of them, in this case!

On the other hand, it is true that it is difficult for people to accept the fact that a President has decided, along with others, to murder most of his population, by means of vaccines and a nanoparticle, but that is the sad reality, however. Even if it sounds unbelievable.

Covid-19 was invented precisely for this purpose! Or they invented it for this purpose, and this, from scratch! The work of the Institut Pasteur. Yes, our own Institute!

And as for the masks, they've been lying to you for two years! A mask cannot protect you from a virus, which is physically impossible, as we will see below.

And if they lied to you on these two very important points, they also lied to you about vaccination, which has a different purpose than the one they make you believe on a daily basis, in their media, which belong to them, you think, to which they make them say, what they want! A deadly goal, then, as will be shown to you in this book!

Death is something unthinkable, something that is denied. Which we refuse to believe in. If they want to murder us, it will be the same. We won't want to believe it. Later, we will say to ourselves. But at any moment, death from the side effects of vaccines could occur, because our leaders, with their manufacturers, have organized things well, you think.

In order to ward off death, to postpone it as long as possible, it would be very useful to know more about it, don't you think, in reading this work, to the end? By means of this, it might be possible for us to oppose their sinister plans. Because, what we don't know yet is that, thanks to their electromagnetic weapon, our leaders would be able to eliminate a large number of us at any moment, by means of a signal, which is not science fiction. Where, in a few minutes, a quarter of our population would easily disappear. Of which this would be a hecatomb, before their announcement, of course, of the New World Order.

Hence the urgency of the situation, because we don't know at what level they poisoned us, with their nanoparticle. Unfortunately, the whole world is affected.

They also put mRNA in farmed fish, as well as in some fruits; who have given a great boost to their genocide. Who are in a hurry to get it over with.

After that, it will certainly be the turn of the animals, which can be found on some farms! Where they are really sick.

Our future has never been bleaker, so, with them in power, in the world. Of course, they know about me, and they know that they have to move fast.

Who knows how long we're still alive? You, who are reading this...

Hence the urgency of the situation.

Or if it turns out, there's no point in making plans, saving money, instead of buying this book, and taking action...

Now, in order to put our leaders out of harm's way, what do we lack? Whereas in this book, as in all my other books, there are many irrefutable charges attributed to them.

Just a few complaints to the prosecutor of his constituency.

Filing a complaint could be scary against them. But you will see how much stronger you will feel, in your approach, with this book to back it up, that nothing can happen to you and that justice has the duty to protect you, if need be, and to arrest this criminal, that Emmanuel Macron has become, along with others!

As far as vaccinations are concerned, to come back to that.

They kill human beings every day.

Our leaders, along with their accomplices, know this very well, and they indicate it in the various side effects they report, and they are therefore perfectly aware of it!

But did they stop these vaccinations, huh?

Of which, isn't it, organized crime, once again? Where there's no doubt about it.

On another level, when you know everything about this affair, it is easy to see why our leaders wanted to set up this whole story. Where the invention of Covid-19 by the Institut Pasteur was a way for them to interfere genetically, in our aging and reproduction! The stakes were there for them, in addition to the murders committed and those planned, by means of nanoparticles, in the future. Once again, this is a crime against humanity, where it is completely forbidden to interfere with the genetic heritage of human beings. Simply, they ignored it! Which are not close to that! Hence the reason why they also wanted to change their vaccination protocol where, instead of injecting viral antigen, they took the decision to inject, without anyone's opinion, all the genetic material of the virus in question.

There, in this matter, let it be understood; it is the weapon created by the Institut Pasteur with all the arsenal it has introduced into it, which has been injected into a large part of humanity, which is totally unacceptable and monstrous.

About this:

To be able to inject us with everything that the Institut Pasteur had introduced into the genome of Covid-19, they needed our leaders, with their biologists, to change the way we proceed, in terms of vaccination, to invent mRNA vaccination; leaving them free to inject all the genetic material of the virus in question, instead of it being a part of his body, which, in this context, constitutes a crime against humanity, once again, given all that Pasteur has inserted into it, with AIDS and other sequences, as well as an abomination.

This fake pandemic, which they caused, with the Covid scam, in fact, allowed them to be able to do whatever they wanted, without the slightest opposition.

And what is terrible about this affair is that there are few people who really measure the seriousness of the acts committed by their leaders. The same goes for the justice system, which will certainly need to read this book several times in order to fully understand and identify the various crimes committed by this entire international criminal organization, in which most of the world's heads of state are involved.

But their greatest achievement for me, for all our leaders, is not so much that they wanted to assassinate us and can want to assassinate us, where this is understandable, in view of the oil which unfortunately will become scarce as time goes by, but that they have managed to make almost the whole planet believe that their only purpose was to worry about our health! Laughing out loud. Or that's the saddest part.

In conclusion, this small band of evildoers is a calamity for all humanity. Who wants us to disappear.

They want to see us dead! Dead, you know what that means?

Empathy doesn't pay off. It is the rich who have seized power in the world, alas, and a rich man does not want to share anything, where it is in his nature.

You certainly understand better now, don't you?

For the people, it would be good if they could become aware that their head of state does not wish them any good at all, while taking advantage of this therapy, which they will find in this book, to get rid of the nanoparticles, already, that have already been injected into their bodies, or that they would find, in their food and drink, of which that is the most responsibility, obviously, for the time being, for them.

Our greatest misfortune is that we, the common people, are dealing with the most important people on earth, with some of the richest and most powerful people on earth, and it may be difficult to bring them down and arrest them by the courts. But their crimes are so numerous and the charges against them are so important and manifold, that we should win the battle, if many of you, my dear readers, file complaints against them, or demonstrate with my books in support, and placards, for example, bearing my image. Thanks in advance.

One last thing.

The invention of vaccination allowed our leaders to legalize murder by their pharmaceutical companies, of which they just had to pass a law in 1986 to be protected, as we will see in this book, which we owe to Reagan! This depopulation project came three years later, in 1989, by David Rockefeller. Which must have been born even earlier in their minds, after the publication of Jacques Attali's book! "The Future of Life" which he published in 1981, which has never hidden from it!

Where it is the people, unfortunately, who have a lot of illusions about their politicians and believe everything they are told. Where it's pathetic!

It is therefore astonishing for a large part of our population that a President, in the exercise of his duties, could want to assassinate him, who may have a hard time doing so. To be convinced, it is essential to read this book please, but also to stop watching television, which feeds you with lies, all the time.

Just what you have been told about the mask protecting you from a virus when it is materially impossible, as we could have seen in this book, demonstrates to the highest degree the organized lie, as well as the conspiracy of the oligarchy against us. Of which it is so true that they did not go to vaccination, that is to say, to the slaughter-house, as Jacques Attali had so well predicted to us, in his book, where we will find an extract from it, further on, than the beggars, that is to say: You, Monsieur, Madame, Mademoiselle, children, included! Not the members of the government, of course, nor the deputies and senators, nor all those individuals who gravitate around them, a certain number of whom are part of Freemasonry, who are aware of this genocide, of course!

Why, one might ask, have we had, again, this whole Covid affair, all over the world?

Well, because we haven't installed the right candidate at the head of each country to be its leader!

Energy, in truth, is inexhaustible, as will be discovered in this book.

Where it is in the choice of individuals who are put in power, that the problem lies. In those, then, who are appointed, who are appointed, by the rich, of course, preserving their interests, who do everything to put them in power, and who succeed every time!

Who will take the one they can manipulate, as they see fit, for their projects. Where Emmanuel Macron, in France, did the job perfectly, in this story!

That being the case, how do you expect an individual, who has not lived, who has had very little education, who is not eclectic, who is always surrounded by too many people, to be able to lead a country, which is almost always at the head of states, all over the world? Where does it take more than that, it seems to me, to have the ability to leader a country? All kinds of knowledge, and the ability to project oneself into the future, with twenty or thirty billion people on earth, and in the best of all possible worlds.

The problem with men is that they have always sought to enrich themselves, moreover, by thinking only of themselves!

For energy, it was the same. They bet everything, on oil, as well, as it was going to make them a lot of money.

And then we built everything, thanks to that energy. As we have seen above, until we realize that this energy would come to an end.

Who better than the Rockefellers to have noticed? They have seen all their wells run out one by one, where this would inevitably happen one day all over the planet.

A disaster then they thought, for once, where it would happen.

Who have seen nothing else, just like the people who gravitate around it, who are among the most important people on earth, along with almost all the rulers, for the last sixty years.

So there was no other solution, they thought, than to eliminate the beggars, by means of vaccines – their speciality – which they set out to do!

Ironically. Energy, in truth, is totally inexhaustible. As will be demonstrated in this book. Where nature has foreseen things very well, as one could see.

Are our politicians stupid then? Can't they see beyond the tip of their sole? Well, I'm afraid, it is!

And that we have descended very low with them, to power, in the world, of which it is high time, that they hand over the reins to others?

What is it about one individual who can become a demon to another now, to the point where he makes the decision to murder him? Or it is as a result of the feeling – contempt – that he will feel about him, that will be at the origin of it.

Pride, arrogance, self-centeredness, these are the feelings that this individual will experience, a characteristic unfortunately of all those men who are at the helm of power in the world! Full of himself, judging himself above the one he wants to murder. Of which this is unfortunately the feeling of many men...

Where, alas, we have returned to the times of Nazi Germany with Hitler in power! Things having come to pass over time, as they have been in power for sixty years now, these same individuals, who believe that everything is permitted, where nothing can stop them, have they thought!

While they are constituted, all these men, like ourselves, only of flesh and blood, who are by no means gods, far from it, who will die, just like us, who are nothing else than the wind, where when they are dead, they will be forgotten, just like us, and it is as if they had never existed!

Where should they really be reframed, all these politicians, and all these kingpins, in power in the world, who really go too far in their madness, to want to murder 7 billion human beings, do you realize?

All this, in order to be able to keep the rest of the oil for them, and their loved ones, for centuries! And in such a way as to keep power, as in a Royalty. A real delirium!

Every being that is born, on earth - let us never forget that please? - has the right to live, where that right is inalienable. All life is good to live for the one who is the subject of it.

Every human being is also entitled to the consideration and respect of his or her peers.
