Introduction to Business

Business is a dynamic and multifaceted concept that lies at the heart of economic activities worldwide. It encompasses a wide range of activities related to the production, distribution, exchange, and consumption of goods and services. At its core, business involves individuals or organizations engaging in commercial, industrial, or professional endeavours with the primary goal of generating profit. Whether operating on a small scale as a local enterprise or on a global scale as a multinational corporation, businesses play a crucial role in shaping the economic landscape of societies. The intricacies of business involve strategic decision-making, resource management, market analysis, and adaptation to ever-changing environments. A successful business is not only financially viable but also attuned to the needs and demands of its stakeholders, fostering sustainable growth and contributing to the overall development of communities. This introduction sets the stage for a deeper exploration of the fundamental principles, challenges, and opportunities that define the world of business.

In the fast-paced realm of contemporary commerce, the dynamics of business have been revolutionized by the advent of E-commerce. This transformative force has reshaped the way consumers and businesses interact, breaking geographical barriers and transcending traditional retail models. The rise of online marketplaces, digital transactions, and the ever-evolving landscape of technological innovations have converged to create an environment where entrepreneurial opportunities thrive. As we delve into the intricate tapestry of E-commerce, this book aims to unravel the complexities, explore the strategies that drive success, and guide aspiring business minds through the exhilarating journey of building and scaling a thriving online enterprise. From navigating the intricacies of choosing the right platform to understanding consumer behaviour in the digital age, this book is a comprehensive guide for anyone aspiring to venture into the dynamic world of E-commerce. So, buckle up for a journey into the heart of digital entrepreneurship, where innovation, strategy, and adaptability reign supreme.

"The Greatness and Virtue of Trade"

Holy Prophet Muhammad (SAW) said:

"Allah has distributed 99% of goodness and blessings in all the affairs of the world, and He has reserved this 99% portion exclusively for trade. Therefore, you should engage in trade, as nations are built and progress through trade."

Once, Holy Prophet Muhammad (SAW) stated:

"Meaning, a trader who speaks the truth and is trustworthy will be in the company of prophets, truthful individuals, and martyrs on the Day of Judgment."

Now, consider that upon hearing this statement from Holy Prophet Muhammad (SAW), who among the Muslims would not have the idea of trade in their heart? And then, the joy is that the secret of success in trade has also been revealed with it, that trade can only prosper through truthfulness and honesty. It is essential for a trader to never let go of integrity with their own hands."

"Blessings and Virtues of Halal Business"

In essence, Holy Prophet Muhammad (SAW) often emphasized engaging in lawful and hardworking occupations, including industry, craftsmanship, trade, and agriculture. It was given priority even over worship. There is a saying in this regard:

"The sphere of worship consists of seventy parts, and the most excellent form is engaging in lawful business."

Once, a companion (R.A) mentioned in the court of Holy Prophet Muhammad (SAW) that "So-and-so person prays at night and fasts during the day. He remains engrossed in the remembrance of Allah day and night and does not interact with anyone."

Holy Prophet Muhammad (SAW) inquired:

"Then where does he get his sustenance from?"

The companion (R.A) replied: "He has a brother who earns, and whatever he earns, he himself consumes and also feeds his brother."

Upon hearing this, Holy Prophet Muhammad (SAW) said:

"The brother is better than him."

On another occasion, Holy Prophet Muhammad (SAW) said:

"Meaning, a person who does not like to accumulate lawful wealth, the wealth with which he cannot maintain his dignity, fulfil his debts, and meet the rights of his relatives, there is no goodness in such wealth."

These hadiths indicate how Islam opposes idleness and unemployment, and Holy Prophet Muhammad (SAW) advises Muslims to accumulate lawful wealth through trade. He not only preaches but also practices trade, nurturing his family with the earnings from trade and, by looking at the excess wealth as an opportunity to help the needy and the destitute, teaches us to earn for ourselves and feed others, rather than living off others' earnings.

In fact, Holy Prophet Muhammad (SAW) did not disregard the role of a trader. People of our trade-centric society can prosper by adopting his approach.

Once, a beggar came and began asking Holy Prophet Muhammad (SAW) for charity. Holy Prophet Muhammad (SAW) noticed that the beggar looked healthy and asked, "Do you have anything in your house?"

The beggar replied, "Holy Prophet Muhammad (SAW), I have nothing except a blanket and a wooden bowl."

Holy Prophet Muhammad (SAW) said, "Bring them."

He brought them, and Holy Prophet Muhammad (SAW) sold them for two dirham's each. He said, "Buy food for one dirham and bring the remaining dirham in the form of a wooden plough."

The beggar did as instructed. Holy Prophet Muhammad (SAW) took the wooden plough and struck the ground with it, saying, "Go to the jungle, cut wood, and sell it. This way, sustain yourself." In just a few days, the man's economic situation improved. Initially, he used to take from people, but eventually, he became a giver to those in need."

"Interesting Information:

The most expensive wood in the world is African Black Wood. Approximately, its cost is around 800,000 rupees per kilogram."

"Holy Prophet Muhammad's (SAW) Supplication for Business Prosperity

Hazrat Abu Hurayrah (R.A) narrates that Holy Prophet Muhammad (SAW) advised us with a supplication for the progress of our businesses. He said that when you go to the market, recite the following prayer first. Insha'Allah, you will not incur any loss in the transactions you make. The supplication is as follows:

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ خَيْرَ هَذِهِ السُّوقِ

وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّهَا وَشَرِّ مَا فِيهَا

'In the name of Allah, O Allah, I seek the goodness of this market from You and seek refuge in You from its evil and from the evil of everything in it.'"

"Supplication for Debt:

A person came to Hazrat Ali (R.A) and complained about his debt. Hazrat Ali (R.A) said to him, 'I will tell you a supplication that my mentor and guide, Holy Prophet Muhammad (SAW), had taught me. By Allah! Even if your debt is as huge as a mountain, perform this supplication diligently after every prayer, morning and evening.

اللَّهُمَّ اكْفِنِي بِحَلَالِكَ عَنْ حَرَامِكَ وَأَغْنِنِي بِفَضْلِكَ عَمَّنْ سِوَاكَ

'O Allah! Protect me from the forbidden and grant me lawful sustenance. Shower Your special grace upon me and make me independent of everyone except You.'

The person followed this advice, and all his debts were eventually paid off."

"Supplication for Worries and Grief:

Narrated by Syedna Abu Saeed Khudri (R.A), it is reported that a person, in the service of Holy Prophet Muhammad (SAW), presented himself and expressed, 'Holy Prophet Muhammad (SAW)! I am burdened with so much debt that there seems to be no apparent way to repay it. I am constantly engulfed in worry and distress. Please, out of your generosity, guide me towards a solution that can relieve me from this worry and allow me to lead a peaceful life.'

Holy Prophet Muhammad (SAW) said, 'Do not be anxious; I will tell you a supplication that will not only help you clear your debt but will also bring tranquillity.'

Thus, Holy Prophet Muhammad (SAW) prescribed the following supplication to be recited morning and evening:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ الْهَمِّ وَالْحَزَنِ، وَالْعَجْزِ وَالْكَسَلِ، وَالْبُخْلِ وَالْجُبْنِ، وَضَلَعِ الدَّيْنِ، وَغَلَبَةِ الرِّجَالِ

'O Allah, I seek refuge in You from worry, grief, helplessness, laziness, miserliness, cowardice, incapacity, and excessiveness, and seek protection from debt and the tyranny of people.'

The narrator states that he recited this supplication for a few days, and by the grace of Allah, all his worries and concerns were alleviated, and his debts were paid off.

This teaching of Holy Prophet Muhammad (SAW) was indeed miraculous. When Hazrat Zubair (R.A), a renowned merchant, passed away, he left behind an inheritance worth thirteen crores (one hundred and thirty million) dirham's, and each of his four wives received eleven lakh dirham's.

Talha Bin Ubaid-Ullah (R.A) was also a famous trader known for his generosity. It is said that he would prepare a daily feast worth a thousand dinars in his kitchen. Let's talk about the residents of this city. Among the companions of Holy Prophet Muhammad (SAW), not just hundreds, but thousands of them were successful in both their religious and worldly endeavours, forsaking other occupations in favour of trade, thanks to the guidance and teachings of Holy Prophet Muhammad (SAW), and they achieved success in both worlds through their trading ventures."

When we don't understand what to do, what should we do?

When we don't understand what to do, what should we do? In English, it is also referred to as the State of Dharma, where we contemplate whether to follow the mind or the heart. This practice is very good for you; do it? The heart says, 'Yes, this task can be done.' If it is done, there might be a loss; a war begins between the heart and the brain. Even though the heart doesn't think, there is a battle between the left part and the right part of the brain. Our left brain is the logic brain, and our right brain is the emotional brain. In reality, this battle takes place, and humans get confused about what to do.

So when understanding doesn't come, when you're in confusion, I'll tell you what to do. You should try this practice sometime."

When you are in this state of confusion, take a piece of paper and divide it into two parts. On one side, write down the benefits of the task you want to do. For example, if you are contemplating going abroad, whether or not to go, and you need to obtain a visa, write on one side of the paper. If I go abroad, what are the benefits? If I go abroad, my salary will increase, I will have job security, my future will be better, etc. Whatever the considerations is.

After that, on the other side of the paper, you will write down what might happen if you go abroad, such as if you go abroad and get married, what will happen to your children, or whatever issues you may have. My mother is elderly, and I cannot leave her alone. Money is not as essential as taking care of her, and after writing, thinks. Do not grab that paper, tear it up, and throw it away.

After that, immediately engage in a good activity, for example, listen to music, eat something delicious, go on a long drive, and don't think about it. After a few hours, you will have a gut feeling that you should go. Believe me, if you get a gut feeling, you should go to another country because this message is giving you insight. By placing both papers in front of you, you will have a discussion with your subconscious. You will start comparing within yourself. You will start the balance within yourself. So you will not end up anything; things will remain in confusion. Leave it to your subconscious; your subconscious will never deceive you.

Alright, I'll tell you another way. Invite one of your friends, if she's a girl, bring her to your home or go to her place and discuss all these matters with her. If I take admission abroad, what will be the benefit? And I think there will be a loss. Before she gives advice to you, discuss other things. They might give you advice before saying, 'Alright, leave all these things, let's talk about something else.'" "Some dishes are prepared or we watch a movie. Now, this is where your action comes into play. You feed information to your brain, and the information from your brain goes into your subconscious theory. Your brain is as old as your age. If you are 16 years old, it means your brain is also 16 years old, but your subconscious is 40,000 or thousands of years old. Then, you trust it, and a thought forms around you. Remember, all the big successes and discoveries in the world are made through the subconscious, not through the conscious. So, try it and see if it works or not.

Best Mobile Applications for 2024

The sun of the past year, 2023, set, bringing joy to some and sorrow to others. As the dusk of 2024 approaches, it brings with it numerous opportunities and possibilities. In accordance with the occasion, Imran Shamshad beautifully expressed, "This is wrong, this year is not right. The sorrow of every moment is not right," meaning that this year will also prove to be good, in fact, very good, especially for those who, with the best planning and noble intentions, will warmly welcome the New Year.

However, to properly welcome the New Year, planning should be innovative, unique, and exclusive. Just as in 2023, to make your closest companion, the "Smart Phone," more productive and useful, what kind of new and advanced applications might be needed, here are a few of the best apps presented in this article.

Create stunning and exciting selfies with ease

Download Link:

<https://www.bit.ly/3h3GRKL>

Some people are obsessed with taking selfies and do not miss an opportunity to capture one at any event or place. However, creating a good selfies everywhere and at every occasion is not easy for anyone. This is because, in the effort to capture an image in a special way, pressing the camera button becomes a challenge. If attempts are made, the unique angle required for a good selfies is often compromised.

While expensive selfies sticks are available in the market as a solution to this issue, it is commonly observed that selfies sticks may not be practical in every situation. In our opinion, the ultimate solution to all the challenges in taking a good selfies lies in the above-mentioned mobile application. This is because, after turning this app into a part of your smart phone, there is no need to press the mobile camera button from any specific angle to take a selfies. In response to the second wave of the Corona virus, countries around the world have imposed strict lockdowns, placing their populations in complete quarantine within their homes to prevent the spread of the virus. This step has been taken to curb the alarming spread of the Corona virus, and people are expected to quarantine themselves at home until symptoms of the virus become apparent. Subsequently, they can wait for the manifestation of symptoms before seeking medical assistance in designated hospitals for Corona virus treatment.

However, for individuals in self-quarantine at home, it is uncertain when and at what time severe symptoms of the Corona virus may suddenly appear. Therefore, to cope with unexpected and critical situations, individuals in self-quarantine should receive some basic first aid training. The primary benefit of this is that if someone's health deteriorates suddenly due to the Corona virus, they can manage themselves temporarily through initial medical assistance until they are transferred to a designated hospital or government quarantine centre.

Recognizing the importance of early medical assistance in dealing with the Covid-19 disease, the American Red Cross has introduced a specialized "First Aid" mobile application. This mobile application, regarded as one of the world's best apps for providing initial medical aid training, covers a range of emergencies, including the Corona virus. The popularity of this mobile application can be gauged by the fact that it has been installed on over a million smart phones so far. It is noteworthy that Google Play Store has included this mobile app in its list of top 5 apps for dealing with the Corona virus.

If you wish to make this mobile app a part of your smart phone, you can download it from the provided link.
